

Date: 28/01/2020

QCFI Student Cell Inauguration / Installation on 28/01/2020

Karnataka's first and country's third QCFI Student Cell was inaugurated at the department of Mechanical Engineering, MIT Mysore

Quality Circles Forum of India (QCFI) Mysuru chapter inaugurated and installed Karnataka's first and country's third Student Cell at the department of Mechanical Engineering, Maharaja Institute of Technology Mysore on 28th January 2020.

The guests on dais included Mr. Sathish .J. Kalokhe-President, QCFI (India), Mr. D.K. Srivastava- Executive Director, QCFI (India), Dr. T. Vasudev-Secretary, MET, Dr. B. G. Naresh Kumar-Principal, MIT Mysore and Dr. Mohamed Khaisar-HoD, Mechanical Engineering, MIT Mysore, Mr. Krishna Kumar-Chairman, QCFI Mysuru chapter, Mr. T. V. Venkatram-Vice chairman, QCFI Mysuru.

The other governing council members of QCFI Mysuru chapter present on the occasion were Mr. Abdul Kareem-Secretary, QCFI Mysuru Chapter, Mr. Wadiraj-Treasurer, QCFI Mysuru, Mr. Ashwath.

Dr. Mohamed Khaisar welcomed the gathering with introduction of the dignitaries. Addressing the gathering. Mr. Venkataram briefed about QCFI and its principles. Dr. B. G. Naresh Kumar ascertained the role of engineering colleges to develop the professional personalities. Mr. D. K. Srivastava highlighted the importance of propagating the quality concepts to all levels of learners. Mr. Kalokhe impressed upon inculcating the culture of uplifting the quality in the nurturing candidates of engineering colleges. Mr. P Krishna Kumar educated the advantages of becoming a part of QCFI student cell at the college. Mr. Wadiraj conducted the oath taking ceremony. Mr. Abdul Kareem conducted the Student cell installation ceremony by handing over the Student Cell certificate to MIT Mysore. Dr. T. Vasudev complemented both QCFI Mysuru chapter and department of Mechanical Engineering, MIT Mysore for the initiative and promised to extend more support from the Maharaja Education Trust in future. The function concluded with vote of thanks by the MIT Mysore QCFI Student Cell Faculty Advisor Prof. Yogesh Kumar. K. J.