

Placement and Training

On February 21, 2024, Dr. Radhakrishna Rao, Director of Training and Placement, spoke with students on how the placement and training programs bridge the gap between the institute and the companies. And how the T&P cell organizes pre-placement training sessions to equip the eligible students with the required skill to help them in achieving greater results in their respective domains.

